Simon Hegele Healthcare Solutions Accelerates Global Growth Through Partnership with Brazil's MR In Site

CHICAGO, April 25, 2023: Simon Hegele Healthcare Solutions, a highly specialized service partner for original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) of large-scale medical equipment, announces a new partnership through a majority shareholder investment, in MR In Site, one of Brazil's largest manufacturers of RF shielding and installation services provider of medical imaging equipment. The agreement includes affiliates Brazil Riggers and Columbia Riggers, which specialize the rigging and assembly of linear accelerator systems. Corresponding (preliminary) contracts have been concluded, closing will take place in the first half of 2023.

Located in São Paulo, MR In Site has deep experience in the electromedical equipment industry and earned a reputation for delivering exceptional service since their founding in 2005.

This partnership builds on Simon Hegele's existing operations in Latin America and supports the ongoing global expansion of the company.

"Our partnership with MR In Site is a great opportunity to expand our capabilities in the South American market," says Jim Nestel, CEO of the Americas and Asia Pacific for Simon Hegele Healthcare Solutions. "Not only does this alliance increase Simon Hegele's capacity in Brazil, it rapidly enhances the variety of services we can bring to our combined customer bases up tilting the Hegele skill set and experience from around the globe."

Alex Silva, MR In Site CEO and founder, adds "It was critical to us that our future partner shares the same dedication to quality and reliability as we do. At the end of the day, we are providing services that impact our surrounding community. We are glad to have found a partner in Simon Hegele Healthcare Solutions that aligns with our values and we are looking forward to a great partnership."
